Fikardou Readies for Christmas Rush with New Traffic Regulations

By: BNN Correspondents Published: December 23, 2023 at 4:00 am EST

As Christmas spirit permeates the air, the picturesque village of Fikardou in Cyprus is preparing for a massive influx of visitors drawn to its alluring Christmas Village. To ensure smooth transit and safety for all, local authorities have announced a set of traffic regulations to manage the anticipated vehicular and pedestrian flow.

Measures to Mitigate Traffic Chaos

These measures follow an unexpected surge of visitors last weekend that caught the police off guard. To prevent a similar occurrence, traffic arrangements will be in place from Saturday to Tuesday. A one-way traffic system will be implemented, where drivers can only enter the village from Klirou and exit via Gourri. Clear signage will guide motorists along this route, minimizing confusion and facilitating smoother traffic flow.

Special Arrangements for Visitors

For those who need to park some distance away from the festivities, small mini buses will be provided to ferry them to the Christmas Village. This thoughtful arrangement ensures that every visitor, regardless of their parking spot, can partake in the festive cheer without undue stress or inconvenience.

The Magic of Fikardou's Christmas Village

The Fikardou Christmas Village is one among seven Christmas Villages set up across Cyprus this year, aiming to boost commerce in rural areas. The village will remain open until January 7th, offering a potpourri of attractions including food, drink, and entertainment imbued with the spirit of Christmas. The announcement of
