The organizers of the Digital Cultural Heritage Conference at the Archbishop's

His Beatitude Archbishop of Athens and All Greece, Mr. Ieronymos, met with the organizers of the 6th Panhellenic Conference on Digital Cultural Heritage today at the Holy Archdiocese of Athens.

The meeting took place within the framework of the Conference, which is being hosted at the "House of Cyprus" from 19 to 22 November 2025, with the participation of more than 200 scientists from Greece, Cyprus and abroad.

The meeting was attended and participated by His Eminence Bishop of Talantiou, Mr. Theologos, Director of the Pastoral Training Foundation of the Holy Archdiocese of Athens, His Eminence Archimandrite Kaisarios Chronis, Archivist of the Ecumenical Patriarchate and representative of the A.T.H. of the Ecumenical Patriarch, Mr. Bartholomew, Professor Mr. Marinos Ioannidis, Director of the UNESCO Chair in Digital Cultural Heritage of the Cyprus University of Technology, Professor Mr. Dimitrios D. Vergados of the University of Piraeus, holder of the UNESCO Chair "Creative Cities in Motion" and Director of the P.M.S. "Digital Culture, Smart Cities, IoT and Advanced Digital Technologies", Mr. Elias Nompilakis, researcher and conservator of stone monuments and Mr. Konstantinos Skriapas, Economist, President of the Cultural Organization "Perraivia Network" and member of the Organizing Committee of the Digitization Conferences.

During the meeting, the organizers praised the valuable work of His Beatitude and the Church in the field of Digital Cultural Heritage, emphasizing at the same time his scientific capacity as an Archaeologist and researcher, a student of Orlando, while also referring to his prolific work. They also underlined the particular importance of his scientific approach and his contribution to the protection of Cultural Heritage.

Subsequently, the first conclusions of the Conference were presented and an extensive discussion followed regarding the importance of digitizing the relics of the Greek Orthodox Cultural Heritage and the need for systematic documentation of the monuments and cultural treasures of the Church.

The Conference, which has become an institution since 2015, is recognized as one of the most innovative and substantial scientific initiatives in the field of Digitization, Artificial Intelligence and the protection of Cultural Heritage.

With the blessing of His Beatitude, the foundations were laid for close cooperation between the organizers of the Conference and the Foundation for Pastoral Training of the Holy Archdiocese of Athens, which will function as a research body for the digital documentation and preservation of the cultural heritage of the Church.
